OLD MORTON CEMETERY

The following inscriptions were copied from the remaining stones in the Old Morton Graveyard at Morton's Cap, HOPKINS COUNTY, Ky., by Mrs. Lila Jones Kington, Mrs. Mary Ellen Cobb, Mrs. Irene Priest and Mrs. Georgia Morton Ramsey on April 9, 1963; members of The Captain Stephen Ashby Chapter, Daughters of The American Revolution, Madisonville, Kentucky. The graveyard was originally a family burying place on the homeplace of Thomas Morton, who came to this part of Kentucky from Virginia about 1796 or 97 and settled here. The cemetery has been located where it now is as early as 1844, the year of the death of Thomas Morton.

CHURCH ROLLS, CEMETERY LIST,

Taken from the Register of the KENTUCKY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, January, 1956

SOUTH BENSON CHURCH: Constituted in the year 1801 in So. Western part of Franklin Co., Kentucky, John Penney, William Cash, Rev. William Hickman, Sr., John Major, William Hickman, Gilbert Christian, Obedience Hickman, Lucy Christian and Nancy Berryman, were charter members of the South Benson Baptist Church. The loss of the early minute book of the church, unfortunately, makes it quite impossible to detail now either the ministry or membership of the church.

LOWER BENSON CHURCH: This, the first Presbyterian church in the vicinity of Bridgeport, was established in the year 1802. The organizing minister was the Rev. Samuel Shannon. The group which formed the Lower Benson Church consisted of Robert Armstrong and his wife, Jane Armstrong, John and Martha Wilson, James and

Lower Benson Church

Rebecca Boyd, John and Marguerite Robinson, Hamilton and Frances Crockett, Elizabeth Logan, Sarah Hamilton, Elizabeth Wilson, Mary Wilson, Catherine Bennett, Jane Kennedy, Nancy Arnold, Jane Boyd, Nancy McClosky, Mary Bennett, Sarah Bennett, Elizabeth Wilson, John and Mary Reading, William and Nancy Boyd. Of these seven or eight had been members of the Upper Benson Church including Robert Armstrong, who was an elder in that earlier organization. Robert Armstrong and William Boyd were elders. The location of this old church was at a point about 1.25 miles due east of Bridgeport and 1 mile southwest of the "Big Road", now the Louisville Pike, on the Cardwell Lane. John Reading, Hamilton Crockett were later elected elders. Occasionally the Rev. Archibald Cameron, Rev. William Mahan, Rev. Eli Smith, Rev. Daniel Baker, Rev. James Logan, Rev. D. M. Winston, Rev. J. J. Bullock, Rev. Ephram K. Lynn, and others filled the pulpit. The old name was dropped in 1844 and the title, Franklin Presbyterian Church was adopted. The Rev. J. S. Braddock, Rev. T. H. Cleland, Rev. D. T. Stewart and Rev. J. R. Hendrick supplied the pulpit of the Franklin Church, but gradually lost membership to the point where in 1873 it could no longer sustain itself.

BRIDGEPORT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

This church was established in the late Autumn of 1846 by a group of pious men and women living in the village of Bridgeport and vicinity. For many years they had been members of the South Benson Baptist Church. On the beginning pages of the original record of this church appears the following: "We whose names are hereunto subscribed, being Disciples of Jesus Christ, do this day form and constitute ourselves into a church of Christ to be known by the name of The Church of God at Bridgeport. Given under our hands this 7th day of November, 1846." Benjamin Edrington, William R. Hawkins, Hannah Hawkins, Julia Hawkins, Mary Bailey, Churchill Bailey (Deacon), Stephen Jenkins, Julian Bailey, Lucinda Bailey, Robert Bailey, Susan Stivers, Mary Bailey Jenkins, Abraham Bailey, John Scantland, John Ryner, James A. Ryner, Sadna Ann Ryner, Mildred E. Ryner, Louisa Ryner, Frances Ryner, Sarah Hughes, Sarah Ann Hughes, Elizabeth Hodges, Sarah Bell Freeman and William Hall. Land was given to this church by Mary Bailey Jenkins, a charter member, a tract between the Farmdale Road and South Benson Creek, and on this the first Christian Church of Bridgeport was erected at a point about 450 yards south of the Frankfort-Shelbyville road.

Forty pastors, a long list indeed, have served the Bridgeport Christian Church through the 109 years (1846-1955) of its existance. The ministerial list of the Bridgeport Church, unsupported by recorded dates occasionally during the 24 year period from 1846 to 1870, follows:

Rev. William Brown, K. C. Gaines, Thomas Waller, Josiah Waller, to 1870; W. A. Broadhurst, 1870-1872; Moses E. Lord, 1878-1880; Byron Waller, 1880-1881; George W. Terrel, 1881-1882; J. M. REV. JOSEPH JAMES BULLOCK, D. D. Son of Walter Bullock - Maria Overton Burch Bullock and was born near the church. He studied theology with his brother-in-law Rev. John C. Young, D.D., President of Centre College. When the remains of Daniel Boone were interred in the Frankfort Cemetery, Dr. Bullock made the prayer. In 1848 he returned to Walnut Hill as pastor of the church and Principal of the Walnut Hill Female School. In 1853 he became pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Louisville. He resigned this charge in 1855 and returned to Walnut Hill and resumed charge of the school. In 1860 he sold this property. From 1861 to 1870 he was pastor of the Franklin Street Church in Baltimore. From 1870 to 1880 he was pastor in Alexandria, Va. He served as Chaplain of the United States Senate from 1879 to 1884. In 1888 he was elected Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, the highest honor which can be paid by the church to one of its ministers.

Dr. Bullock's first wife was Caroline Laurens Breckinridge, daughter of Joseph Cabell Breckinridge and Mary Clay Smith Breckinridge. Caroline's mother was a granddaughter of John Witherspoon. His second wife was Mrs. Elizabeth T. Lavender.

Dr. Bullock died November 9, 1892, in Lexington, Kentucky.
